

I am deeply grateful to the French ambassador for the United States, Phillipe Etienne and French Consul General Jérémie Robert for presenting me with the insignia of Commandeur de la Légion d'Honneur on June 30, 2021. The ceremony took place in the company of close family and friends at the French Consulate in New York City.

I also want to thank a number of others who made this award possible, including Ambassador François Delattre, Jacques de Larosière and former Counsel General, Anne-Claire Legendre, this award would not have been possible without their support. I also want to add that I greatly admire the work that continues to be done to further strengthen French-American relations.
